NUMBER 37

BUD M'CANDLESS.

He is Shot and Killed by Arch Thurman, Town Marshal of Edmonton.

THE OFFICER PERFECTLY JUSTIFIABLE.

The people of Edmonton were thrown into great excitement last Thursday afternoon when four shots rang out and the announcement was made that the expected had happened- that Arch Thurman, the Town Marshall, had shot and killed Bud McCandless.

The particulars, as we have been able to gather them, are as follows:

McCandless had been repeatedly charged with violating the local option laws, and Thurman had a warrant for his arrest and went to the former's store to serve it. As soon as he entered the builbing McCandless made a move, but the Marshal was too quick for him-had his pistol ready for action-firing four shots in rapid succession, every ball hitting its mark.

McCandless' wounds were in the head and on the body, andhedied instantly. Thurman surrendered to the Sheriff and will doubtless be accquitted at his examining trial.

It is said by those who are in a posiposition to know, that the dead man was a wholly terror to the good people of Edmonton; that he was reckless and frequently caused trouble and that his business and presence was obnoxious to the good people of Edmonton and Metcalfe county.

About eight or ten years ago he shot and killed Judge Geo. R. Price, an old man, on the square at Edmonton, and more recently he collected a debt by cowhiding debtor until paid.

The dead man leaves a wife and three children.

Death of a Native of Columbia.

The people of Columbia and throughwill regret to learn of the death of Mr. Thos. W. Montgomery, who passed beyond the veil, at his late home, in this county, about one month ago. He lived in the eastern portion of Adair, fifteen miles from Columbia, and there is but little passing from where he died to this place, hence the intelligence of his demise did not reach here until last Saturday.

The deceased was born and reared in this place, and at one time was one of the best known men in this part of the county. He was a son of Nathan Montgomery, who was a prominent and influential man during his life time, and only lacked one month of being seventy-one years old. When about thirty years old he was married to a Miss Bradshaw, a sister of the late Tim Bradshaw, and a short time after marriage he located in the neighborhood where he died. His mother was a Winston, a sister of Dr. Dudley Winston, who left this town many years ago, locating in Nashville, becoming one of the prominent physicians of the South. Tom Montgom ry was a man who believed that blood would tell, and he prided upon his birth, though he was an unpretentious man. He was honest in his dealings with his fellow man, and those who knew him best had the highest regard for him. When he came to Columbia, he was given the glad hand by all his former associates. He delighted to sit and talk with the friends of his early days, and he re. A Sad Death

Mrs. Luther Brockman, who resided with her husband and children in the Newby property, near the Fair Grounds, died last Friday afternoon, a victim of typhoid fever. The deceased was a very excellent woman and was born and reared in Russell county. She removed with her husband and children to Columbia about one year ago, and being strictly a home lady, she had not made the acquaintance of many people in Columbia. Those who knew her best will receive the intelligence of h r demise with sadness, as she had many close friends at her former home. A son is also down with the same disease, and

The surviving husband and children certainly have the sympathy of this town in this great affliction.
